

UH Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital is a 244-bed, full-service children's hospital and academic medical center. A trusted leader in pediatric health care for more than 125 years, UH Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital consistently ranks among the top children's hospitals in the nation. Ranked in eight pediatric specialties in 2015 – 2016, including: Neonatology, Orthopaedics, Pulmonology, Cancer, Gastroenterology & GI Surgery, Neurology & Neurosurgery, Nephrology and Urology.

UH Rainbow by the Numbers

Licensed Beds 244

Medical Staff: 745

Outpatient Visits: 654,818

Urgent Care Visits: 28,977

Emergency Department Visits: 28,378 (University Hospitals Cleveland Medical Center)

UH Rainbow Babies Fast Facts:

- Northern Ohio's only designated Level I Pediatric Trauma Center.
- The Quentin & Elisabeth Alexander Level IV Neonatal Intensive Care Unit has a 96 percent survival rate – one of the highest in the nation – and is an international leader in the treatment of critically ill and extremely low birth-weight babies.
- UH Rainbow is leading the search for a cure for cystic fibrosis (CF): Developing and testing new therapies for CF, including drugs aimed at improving gene and protein function.
- The Angie Fowler Adolescent & Young Adult Cancer Institute, integrated with UH Seidman Cancer Center, is internationally recognized for basic, clinical and translational research, ensuring patients have access to the most advanced therapies FIRST.
- Rainbow Babies & Children's Foundation, a supporting organization of UH Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital, generates financial, corporate and community support to advance the hospital's mission. They support key hospital programs, recruitment and recognition of exceptional physician-scientists and the nationally recognized Family and Child Life Services Program.